

NYC

INFORMATION

EXHIBITOR SECTIONS:

Galleries

As the core section of The Armory Show, Galleries features outstanding 20th and 21st century artworks presented by the world's leading galleries. Visitors are invited to discover thousands of artworks spanning movements, mediums and cultures.

Insights

Dedicated exclusively to 20th century artworks, Insights emphasizes solo-artist, dual-artist and thematic presentations. This section highlights canonical works of modernism and the post-war era as well as overlooked artistic gems and rediscoveries.

Presents

Presents is a platform for galleries no more than ten years old to showcase recent work fresh from the artist's studio. Solo-artist and dual-artist presentations spotlight the next generation of artistic talents, which visitors can discover in this in-depth and intimate setting.

Focus

Following seven successful editions spotlighting artists from specific geographies, the 2017 Focus section will evolve to encompass in-depth presentations of new or rarely seen work by today's most relevant and compelling artists, chosen by an prominent curator. For 2017, solo-artist projects have been developed specifically for The Armory Show under the direction of curator Jarrett Gregory.

Platform

Debuting in 2017, Platform stages large-scale artworks, installations and site-specific commissions across Piers 92 & 94. Artists and galleries are invited by an appointed curator to realize ambitious projects that activate the fair's unique industrial space. The 2017 edition of Platform is curated by Eric Shiner, former Director of the Andy Warhol Museum.

Armory Live

Armory Live brings together prominent curators, critics, artists and cultural practitioners for a thought-provoking series of conversations, panels and screenings, taking place at the fair and online. Sara Raza and Amara Antilla of the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum are the curatorial advisors in its inaugural year.